Shri Prashant Mishra, Advocate for the petitioner.

Shri Rajesh Pandey, Advocate for the respondents.

Heard finally with consent of both the parties.

By this petition, the petitioner challenges the order Annexure P/1 whereby he has been transferred from Bilaspur to Janjgir.

It is contended that the transfer is illegal.

Counsel for the respondents on the other hand submits that the ~~transfer~~ Posting is an administrative exigency. He was attached only for a limited period and for stopgap arrangement. It is also pointed out that the petitioner has straightway filed this petition. He did not make any representation.

There is an order of this Court dated 10-1-2002 directing status quo. An application has been filed for vacation of the order of status quo.

Having considered the facts and circumstances and material available on record and without expressing further, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice would serve if opportunity is given to the petitioner to make a representation along with copy of this petition and documents filed herewith within two weeks from today. The representation, if submitted, shall be decided within a month from the date of receipt of same.

Accordingly, it directed that if the petitioner makes a representation within two weeks from today by registered acknowledgment or dasti, the same shall be decided as early as possible preferably with one month. Till the representation is decided, the status quo as it exists today shall be maintained by the parties and the petitioner shall be allowed to work wherever he is working.

With these observations, the petition is finally disposed of.

Certified photocopy to both the parties.
